CSN Classes Start Next Week, Registration Still Open

January 14, 2019 – More than 30,000 college students will converge on the College of Southern Nevada's three campuses next week as classes begin Tuesday, January 22, for the spring 2019 semester.

CSN will have teams of people on each campus to help new students find where they need to go and connect them with whatever student services they may need. This Welcome Back Crew has become a semi-annual tradition at the college, the largest and most diverse higher education institution in Nevada.

Students have until the end of the day January 28 to register for classes.

What: First day of classes at CSN
When: Tuesday, January 22
Where: Campuses in Las Vegas, North Las Vegas and Henderson

About CSN: Founded in 1971, the College of Southern Nevada is the state's largest and most ethnically diverse higher education institution. CSN is accredited through the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities and specializes in two-year degrees and workforce development that lead directly to high-demand careers or transfer to a university. It also offers seven bachelor's degrees in specialized fields and is the state's largest provider of adult basic education and literacy training. CSN is a Minority Serving Institution and Nevada's first Hispanic Serving Institution. Our students create flexible schedules with day, evening and weekend classes taught on three main campuses and multiple locations throughout Southern Nevada or online. CSN is an Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action institution.
