Spring Enrollment Open at CSN: Learn More, Earn More

Students can choose from a mix of in-person and online options

November 21, 2023 – Whether you’re interested in the most affordable path to a college degree or getting training for a new career, the College of Southern Nevada is ready.

Enrollment for the spring 2024 semester is open now at CSN, with locations across Southern Nevada, free career advice for students, and so many online options that many students rarely come to campus. In fact, CSN was just named one of America’s top online colleges by Newsweek.

CSN is Nevada’s largest higher education institution, and we have something for everyone. Student clubs, on-campus food service, even free parking. We offer dozens of fully online degrees and the full array of free student services: financial aid, mental health care, tutoring services, placement testing and so much more. Students love CSN because of its small class sizes and the personalized attention they get.

Classes start January 16.

Those interested and not yet admitted can apply at www.csn.edu/apply through the end of the first week of class. More than two-thirds of CSN students receive financial aid, including grants, loans and scholarships, and the college encourages all who are eligible to apply for aid. More information can be found at www.csn.edu/financial-aid.
